Dear Jim —

There seems to be no end
to the trouble I give you —

I found the enclosed letter on my return this evening, & frankly — I do not like it.

It is a horrid
feeling to know that there is someone who wishes to make way with you, even if that person is, as I take it for granted the writer of this letter is,
plain crazy —

I suppose the authorities should have this letter —

However, I know that you will know what is best to be done —

As ever Trustfully —

James Earl Hall.

I sincerely hope no letter will be sent to Willie —
